Give it a Grow 2019 Application Form

Is your garden blooming marvellous?

We are delighted to announce that Give it a Grow – our annual gardening competition is back and we are welcoming applications from green-fingered tenants and schools.

Categories and Criteria

Best Garden

In this category, judges will pay special attention to well-kept lawns, tidy borders, flowers, shrubs and hedges. Special consideration will be given to gardens that incorporate recycling and feature a quirky element.

Best Communal Garden

This category will recognise gardens entered from community groups. Judges will consider the quality of lawns, flowers, borders and gardens that include a recycling element.

Best Container

This category will recognise gardens for their presentation of flowers, fruit, shrubs and trees.

Best Environmental Garden

This category will recognise gardens for their incorporation of environmental initiatives. Judges will consider gardens that include recycling, wildlife, flowers and ponds. Judges will give special consideration to gardens that attract wildlife.

Best Produce

This category will recognise gardens that produce vegetables, fruit bushes or trees.

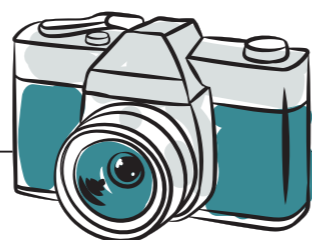

Best Beginner

This category will recognise entries from people that consider themselves 'beginner gardeners.' Include before and after photos to show how the garden has changed over time.

Best School Garden/Greenhouse

This category will recognise the excellent work schools in Sunderland are doing to introduce young people to gardening and horticulture. Judges will consider the design and maintenance of the garden/greenhouse as well as the level of involvement from young people and the benefits to the school. Special consideration will also be given to entries where environmental initiatives have been incorporated.

Top Tip: Take photographs throughout the process which can be used as supporting evidence on judging day!

Please submit this application form by 28 June 2019.

Judging will take place between 8 - 19 July 2019.

Winners will be announced shortly afterwards.
