Foreword

John Craggs Chief Executive Officer, Gentoo

I am pleased to introduce our Customer Annual Report 2015-16. This document not only gives you an overview of how we have performed, but it also gives you an update on some of our achievements and our plans for the future.

In July 2015, the Chancellor's summer budget set out that social housing rent levels would reduce by 1% every year; for the next four years. This has resulted in a year of significant change for Gentoo, however delivering customer focused products and services remains at the heart of everything we do. Our new vision will ensure we continue to deliver value for our customers as well as build strong and safe communities.

I am really proud of the positive contribution our people have made in our communities, through collaboration, partnerships and customer involvement.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the customers who helped us to produce this report. I hope you enjoy reading it.

Repairs and Maintenance Review

In April 2016 we started a fundamental service review of our Repairs and Maintenance Service. We are looking at all aspects of the service including our lettable standard (condition of new homes when they are let) operating hours and repair responsibilities. The main focus will continue to ensure that we deliver the right kind of repairs service to our customers. Customers have been helping us with this review and we are using their feedback to develop our new approach.

We are in the process of designing a new way of delivering the service which will be customer friendly and easily accessible as well as being efficient and providing great value for money.

The future

Our work on planning and delivering large improvement schemes ensures homes and their external structures are refurbished and maintained to a high standard.
